DONATION HELPS BUY MUCH NEEDED EQUIPMENT

A $10,000 donation from Community Bank Trafalgar & District to West Gippsland Hospital has helped purchase much needed equipment for Andrews House residents at Trafalgar.

West Gippsland Healthcare Group Operations Manager Aged Care, Tess Schreyer, said the donation has benefited Andrews House residents and was very much appreciated.

"Some of our beds and pressure mattresses are reaching the time when they need to be replaced so this donation has come at a perfect time. Pressure mattresses play an important role in preventing and relieving pressure injuries in residents who have limited mobility."

Branch Manager of Community Bank Trafalgar and District, Torina Johnston, said the donation was part of the Community Bank's annual distribution to re-invest profits back into the local community to support local people.

"Each year the Board of Directors of Community Bank Trafalgar and District provides funding to support a range of sporting, education, and community-based groups."

"We are pleased to support Andrews House at Trafalgar to purchase much needed equipment that will improve the comfort and care of older people in our community."

The donation purchased a new king single bed, pressure relieving mattresses, shower chairs, a commode and bed cradles designed to keep bed linen off sensitive areas of a resident's leg or feet.

Community Bank Trafalgar & District has reinvested $1.6 million back into the Community since opening their doors 18 years ago, only made possible by their customers.

Council community satisfaction survey

Residents in Baw Baw Shire may soon receive a phone call inviting them to participate in the Victorian Government's annual Community Satisfaction Survey.

The survey has been designed to assess the performance of Victorian Councils across a range of measures to identify areas of improvement.

Performance measures

assessed include:

- Overall performance
- Community consultation and engagement
- Lobbying on behalf of the community
- Decisions made in the interest of the community
- Condition of sealed local roads in your area
- Contact customer service
- Overall Council direction.
- The results of the Community Satisfaction Survey

vey are used by Council to better understand community needs in relation to its services. They also enable Local Government Victoria to gauge how residents think Baw Baw Shire Council has performed over the past 12 months and provide a benchmark against comparable Councils.

In 2021, the survey results showed that Baw Baw Shire Council's score had improved in each of the core areas measured, with significant increases in both the 'overall Council direction' and 'community decisions' categories, when compared to the previous 12 months.

Mayor Cr Michael Leaney said "The annual community satisfaction survey provides valuable insight and feedback in determining how the community views our overall performance as an organisation over the past 12 months. Our results last year showed encouraging increases in all categories and we aim to keep this trend going through a continuing commitment to improving service delivery for all Baw Baw residents."

Organised by independent market research agency,

National Field Service, calls are due to commence on Monday 31 January, and are expected to run until mid-March. Researchers will call a random selection of Baw Baw residents until 400 valid responses are received.

Researchers must comply with the guidelines of the Australia Communications and Media Authority, stating they can call between 8:30am

– 8:30pm on weekdays and 9:00am – 5:30pm on weekends.

They may contact residents on the 'do not call' register as they are carrying out their market research.

Results from the annual satisfaction survey are published on Council's website and are included in Council's Annual Report.

Traf Opp Shop reaches $1million sales milestone

Trafalgar Opportunity Shop volunteers have celebrated a milestone having exceeded sales of $1million since opening the shop 23 years ago.

Trafalgar Opp Shop President, Glenys Brennan, said volunteers were delighted to have raised $1.19 million since 1998 to put back into the local community.

"This money has all been raised through the sale of pre-loved items donated to the Opp Shop which is run by volunteers."

Glennys Brennan said when the Trafalgar Opp Shop first opened, it raised a few thousand dollars in its first year. Now it raises over $50,000 each year.

"We achieved a record year of sales again this year even though the shop was closed for some months during the COVID restriction period in late 2020."

The Opp Shop presented $50,000 to West Gippsland Healthcare Group's Andrews House aged care at Trafalgar and $6,000 to the Trafalgar Youth Resource Centre. This money was raised from sales over the past twelve months.

Glenys Brennan said there had been an increase in people wanting to donate goods to the Opp Shop and to purchase recycled items to be more sustainable and to give back to their community.

WGHG Board Chair, Christine Holland, said it was an incredible effort by the volunteers and the local community who support the Opp Shop.

WGHG Operations Manager of Aged Care, Tess Schreyer, said residents and staff were so appreciative of the Trafalgar Opp Shop who also support residents throughout the year with items for special theme days.

'Over the years the Trafalgar Opp Shop has helped to purchase a bus for resident outings, new chairs and drapes for the residents' friendship room, gas log fires, refurbished a sitting room and more."

Resident Del Knight thanked the Trafalgar Opportunity Shop volunteers on behalf of residents.

"Their work makes a big difference to our lives and we are very appreciative for the hard work they do for our community."

Council secures funding to support Noojee forestry transition

Noojee is the latest community to benefit from the Victorian Forestry Plan, a state government initiative that ensures timber communities and local jobs are supported as the industry transitions.

The Victorian Forestry Plan's Local Development Strategy grant program is a community-led transition plan designed to support the native timber industry ahead of commercial timber harvesting ending in 2030.

"We welcome the Victorian Government's program to support the Noojee community to plan for a strong economic future" said Baw Baw Shire Mayor Cr Michael

Leaney

As part of the program, Baw Baw Shire will receive $360,000 that will go towards recruiting an independent project officer to develop a local development strategy to support the community's economic position with the transition.

Their role will involve engaging with the community and form relationships with key community members, groups and businesses within Noojee timber industry. Over a two-year period the officer will help facilitate community-led efforts to identify the town's strengths, assets, challenges and opportunities for innovation and economic development.

Minister for Agriculture Mary-Anne Thomas stated, "This funding puts the power directly into the hands of local communities to plan for and take control of their future based on their strengths and priorities."

Following this period, a local development strategy will be formed outlining the range of action plans and identified transition priorities.

This will build on the work of the Latrobe Valley Authority supporting long-term economic development across Gippsland.

Baw Baw Arts Alliance introduces newcomers to gallery space

By Carol Monson

The Baw Baw Arts Alliance is continuing to present quality exhibitions by new artists in the gallery space at the 'Station Gallery', Yarragon. During February, two newcomers to the gallery are painter, Lynne Coade, who will have her works in the main gallery space and woodworker, Pat Johnson, who will have his refined wood work Art in the space know as the 'Wall'.

In her exhibition titled Lasting Impressions, Lynne paints with acrylics and her visual memory unfolds to interpret colour, light, and reflection seen within a cloud or a wave on the beach that caught her eye. Her art is an emotional response to a memory and the way she felt. You can see Lynette's creativity at our March exhibitions, at the 'Station Gallery', Yarragon, which will be displayed alongside 'Diversity, 2020' Mixed Media and Wearable Art by Jill Loader.

Woodworker, Pat Johnson, does not see himself as an Artist but he has been working in wood for 40 years, either as a hobby or out of necessity. His Intarsia wall pieces are so carefully designed and finished that viewers may well choose to see him as an Artist.

At 'The Station Gallery' there is always a wide range of Artwork from silk scarves, wearable Art, one off jewelry pieces, handcrafted wooden boxes, small metal sculptures, mosaic pieces, and many more handcrafted, high quality Art goods.

Make sure you don't miss the February Baw Baw Arts Alliance Summer Arts Market with many new stallholders. Plan to be at Civic Park, Warragul, on Saturday, February 19, 2022 and if you want more Artistic creativity in your life watch the painting frenzy in Drouin later in the day. Between 5pm and 7pm at the Drouin football ground Artists from the Baw Baw Arts Alliance will participate in a 'Ficifolia Art Frenzy' creating one off works of Art in two hours. These will then be for sale direct from Artist to purchaser.

Also during February the Arts Alliance is proud to support the Neerim South Sculpture Event delightfully titled 'Birds of Colour'. The event, which runs from 12 February to 27 February, is a wonderful opportunity to view very new sculptures from a number of local sculptors who have overseen the installation of these new works in Neerim South.

Another date for the calendar is the Baw Baw Arts Alliance Summer Arts Market, Saturday, March 19, 2022, 8.30am to 1.00pm Civic Park, Warragul.

Coming up over the Easter period is the Easter Arts Sale, which provides artists of all genres to contribute works for sale that can be taken at the point of purchase. The Easter Arts Sale is located at Warragul Exhibition Hall, 8 April to 27 April, 2022

For more information about the Baw Baw Arts Alliance please pop into the 'Station Gallery', Yarragon, open from 10.30 am to 4.00pm, Wednesday to Sunday.

'Artspace' at Trafalgar Railway Station, open from 10.30am to 3.00pm, Tuesday to Friday, closes 12.30pm on Wednesday or check the website <https://www.bawbawartsalliance.org.au>

Japanese day 2021 st Joseph's Trafalgar

At St Joseph's Trafalgar you will drink tea, play taiko (drums), dance Soran Bushi, make origami, eat onigiri (rice balls), write calligraphy, do sumo and draw manga. Hai (yes) it's Japanese day!!

St Joseph's students are becoming global citizens by learning, tasting and doing. At this time of the year you might think of red and white as Santa colours. They are also the colours of the Japanese flag which was raised this morning while we said prayers followed by a Japanese version of 'Lord hear our prayer'; Kamisama, inori o kiite kudasai.

Sonny Harvey in Grade 1 summed it all up, "We had fun!". Fenn Towb (Grade 4) enjoyed the Sumo wrestling with big padded suits: "Doing sumo is fun and challenging because you have more weight on you." Zander Murto's favorite was Manga drawing: "I like how fun it is using my imagination to create something" (manga drawing).

All students had a taste of some onigiri (rice balls). Aidan Cathomen (Grade 4) said: "I liked the umeboshi in the middle. It was delicious and a bit sour." Kaitlyn Pedemont (Grade 5) explained some of the challenges in the Soran Bushi dance: "It was tricky to keep in time and we couldn't get low enough. It was fun though".

What a great way to become young people of the world.

Probus starts off 2022 with various activities

By Elly Fallon

Probus is back in full swing. Activities are once more on the go. The walking group met at the Warragul Linear Park known as the Arts Discovery Trail. This trail follows the Hazel Creek for part of the way and is a hidden local gem, flat, lush, shady and a peaceful, easy walk close into town. It's well worth a visit and was thoroughly enjoyed by the Probians that ventured out.

The Garden Club met at the home of Rob and Ann Hoff this month. Rob and Ann are Probus members and definitely have green thumbs as their whole town house block is taken up with plants of all kinds. There are plants that flower but also a large array of those that you can eat. There is a plentiful supply of fruit trees, vines, berries of all kinds, vegetables and herbs. They are also collectors of clocks from all over the world, so the morning proved to be very interesting and informative. Ann's hospitality included a delicious morning tea made from home grown produce.

Twenty six members shared a delicious dine out experience at the Stump Tea Rooms in Darnum recently. There was much catching up on news to be done and lots of laughter and stories shared. Just what was needed really after the doom and gloom of Covid.

Our first general meeting for 2022 was held in February with about 57 members present. There is a mystery bus trip to look forward to this month that includes morning tea and lunch, a dine-out at the Italian Club, a walk at the Edward-Hunter Reserve in Moe and of course garden club with a speaker on pruning and espaliering. There is always something to do if you are a member of Trafalgar and District Probus Club.

Morning teas are always a highlight, as are our guest speakers. The February speakers were Sally Jones and Steve Ronalds co-founders of Gippsland Jersey Milk. They began the business together after the death of Sally's father due to mental health issues. Their aim is to promote a fair go for farmers, social change in rural mental health, kindness to others and to bring the community together connecting producers and consumers. Sally founded the Warragul Farmer's Market in 2013 in order to promote Gippsland products both here and then hopefully overseas.

Both want to look after local businesses, so, as much as they can they use local companies for their packaging and distribution. Their passion is the mental health of farmers and country people. Each year they create a calendar showcasing the stories of 12 farmers and the resilience they have shown in overcoming the mental health challenges of their jobs. Ben Damschke, a local farmer shared the story of his family's mental health struggles during a difficult farming period. He was very supportive of the work of Sally and Steve in caring for the mental health of Gippsland Farmers. All three proved to be inspirational speakers and we Probians came away believing the world was in good hands with people like Sally, Steve and Ben working to remind us that kindness, awareness and support of others is the answer to so much in the area of mental health struggles. They generously left us with samples of their products and copies of their calendars. We can support local farmers best by using their products.

Anyone interested in joining Probus can contact Secretary Tina on 56352432 or pick up a Probus newsletter at the Trafalgar Bendigo Bank.

Reflection

Words by Moria Dodsworth

LOOKING OUTWARDS

At a meeting recently, we were given an activity to use our senses to think about walking in our community, the place where we are most. During this discussion, I discovered that trains had not been running for two weeks and I had not noticed, even though the trainline is 200 metres from my home. I wonder if this has been partly due to COVID, I think we do worry more about ourselves – how am I feeling, any symptoms? Where am I going today, do I need to? When can I have my booster? Have I got my mask, my phone for every departure from home? I think we may have extended this to our state and country, numbers of cases, available of vaccines, PPE for our place. Perhaps this has even become a selfishness.

On my walk today, I went out with all my senses on notices. I realised that the lavender scent is not as strong as it was, a nature strip tree is flowering with a strong scent. I heard the birds and distant traffic, I found I smiled at regular walkers, felt

.who had mown their lawn recently. I was thinking out there, rather than inside my head about what has to get done today.

It did me good, I wasn't just exercising but being part of my community and the world. I am fortunate to walk, not just on streets but in a stretch of bush. The creek and the highway battle with each other to be heard, the scents of the bush are fresh with the dew.

Sometimes, it is challenging to look beyond ourselves, we want to be safe and know those we love are safe too but there is much we can miss. I did hear a train today and saw the neighbour's cat taking a rat home for tea!

Trafalgar CFA has a busy January

By Glenn Goodin

January saw in a busy month for the Trafalgar CFA, starting with a strike team to Meeniyan at New Years.

On New Year Eve, 31 December 2021, at approximately 7pm the Trafalgar CFA was paged to step up to Meeniyan fire station, to cover the area while they were battling a running grass fire at Venus Bay. Upon arriving into Meeniyan, Trafalgar Tanker was immediately deployed to the fire ground to assist with asset protection and blacking out.

Three members from Trafalgar lead by Crew Leader Lt Marcus Barker, worked tirelessly over New Years night, to contain the fire and help our neighbours to the south.

Since this hectic start to the New Year, the brigade has responded to eight emergency calls throughout January. The callouts have included, burn-offs in fire danger period, a tree fire started by lightning, support to FRV & Moe, and a motor vehicle accident on Thorpdale Road.

There has been a good turnout to training, every Monday night at 7pm, and new/prospective members are encouraged to come along or register their interest in the CFA by going to www.cfa.vic.gov.au

Fire danger period started on 10 January 2022 with an expected end on 01 May 2022 within the Baw Baw Shire.

During the Fire Danger Period, fire restrictions come into force. This means you cannot light a fire in the open air unless you have a permit or comply with certain requirements. Total Fire Bans are different to the Fire Danger Period. A Total Fire Ban Day can be declared at any time throughout the year. No fires are to be lit in the open air on Total Fire Ban Days unless you have a special permit. If you don't obtain a permit, you could be breaking the law and may be prosecuted.

Men's Sheds Last Project for 2021

By Ron Fletcher

It is not the first time somebody has come to the shed and asked if we could make, fix or restore an item but on each occasion, it creates a good worthwhile feeling among the members because they can get their collective heads together and design and construct a project, after all that is part of the reason we have the Mens Shed.

Early December Karen an employee of TTMI (Trafalgar Tractors & Machinery) visited the Shed and asked if we would make two picnic tables for the business to enhance their staff outdoor BBQ area. Karen outlined what was required and three of our members took responsibility for the project and got on with the job.

Daryl Anderson a retired engineer took on the design as the picnic tables are 2.4 meters in length and with the seating and table top a fraction higher than the normal, he was the man to sort it out. Daryl as mentioned before is a retired engineer so it is best not to enquire too much about what is going on with the design or you will be late home for your evening meal.

Graeme 'Anonymous', our carpenter who featured in our September 2021 Traf News article after building the floor to ceiling bookcases; wishes to remain Anonymous. Graeme spends a lot of time in the woodwork room and his wood working skills are all over these tables. The tables are well constructed and have a nicely finished appearance to them.

One of our most recent members Wayne Butler is the third member of the team and was a willing helper on the project. Wayne moves around or appears to without the restrictions brought on by the ageing process afflicting a good number of us at the shed. And this is a good sign for the future of the shed as we enter another year.

The picnic tables were delivered on the December 15 2021, just in time for our Christmas get together and BBQ. We are pleased with the result and have included a picture so the readers can view the finished items.

We thank TTMI for giving us the project to do after they approached a local Tradie who had too much work on at the time to accommodate them.

If anyone is interested in having a picnic table made the Shed contact number is 0493 256 723 or visit the Shed in Wellington Street Trafalgar. We are open on Mondays & Wednesdays 9am-3pm.

Strzelecki Bushwalking Club walks into 2022

Jo Leviston

Strzelecki Bushwalking Club is based in Trafalgar with members from across Gippsland but mostly from Drouin to Traralgon. There are regular bushwalking and hiking activities in the Club program. Cycling, paddling, snow-shoeing and skiing are also included. Club Meetings are held at the Scout Hall in Kitchener Street Trafalgar on the 2nd Wednesday of the month.

The 2022 Club Meeting Program officially begun with a gathering at McGregor Park in Trafalgar on Wednesday 9 February where a display of lightweight walking and camping gear was the focus. The meeting on 9 March will present information on using the Avenza mapping app which is a very handy tool for hikers to incorporate into their bushwalking skills.

Check out our Facebook page (Strzelecki Bushwalking Club), or visit our website (sbwc.org.au) for more information about our activities or contact Jo at publicity@sbwc.org.au.

Vet Clinic promotes polite pet month

Kerry Piper

March is Polite Pet Month in Australia. Polite Pet Month is an initiative from the Australian Veterinary Association to highlight the importance our pets' behaviour plays in our relationship with them.

The staff at Trafalgar Veterinary Clinic are used to talking about behaviour. We listen to owners of healthy pets tell us all about their antics. We hear from owners of sick pets about how their behaviour has changed since they've become unwell. And of course, we reflect on a well lived life with families as we prepare to farewell our senior friends. When pets do that really cute behaviour, we love them that little bit more too.

Behaviour is important. But how do pets learn good behaviour? How much do we have to teach them in order to help them to be good pets? We at the Trafalgar Vet Centre believe that every pet deserves an education, no matter their species or age. Basic education would consist of how to interact safely with their family, how to travel safely and how to behave to receive what they want; be that a treat, a pat or perhaps space to themselves.

Have you ever encountered a training idea and wondered if that's right? Wondered if you can teach an old dog new tricks? Or why some families have different rules for their pets?

Throughout the month of March our vet behaviour consultant Dr Kerrie will be sharing some common behaviour and training beliefs on our Facebook page. If you haven't found us on Facebook yet, have a look for Trafalgar and Newborough Veterinary Centres and join in on the behaviour fun this month.

If you have some behaviour questions you need help answering, you are always welcome to ask the staff during your pet's next health check appointment. For basic training help, we offer free 10 minute consultations to help you get the most out of training that troublesome behaviour.

Celebrate International Women's Day 2022

Join Baw Baw Shire Council and Women in Gippsland as we celebrate International Women's Day on Tuesday 8 March.

International Women's Day celebrates the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women while calling for gender equity and an end to gender-based discrimination and violence.

Anyone and everyone are encouraged to attend this event and help #breakthebias as we actively work together to improve gender equality.

The event will begin in the West Gippsland Art Centre forecourt from 5pm, with music, food and fun before moving to the theatre for the main event from 7pm.

SAVE THE DATE! Tuesday 8 March

Don't miss a night of networking and fun in the Arts Centre forecourt before being entertained and inspired by Keynote speaker Em Rusciano – author, comedian, performer and regular host of Channel Ten's 'The Project' as she discusses building your own success and following your own path.

Crowds celebrate good old fashioned fun at the Erica Country Expo.

Excited visitors and locals have flocked to celebrate the Erica Country Expo, a community-led event and the first of its kind to be held in the local region.

The Erica Recreation Reserve was transformed into a COVID-safe country festival with family friendly entertainment, carnival rides, live music and stalls on every corner for attendees to enjoy.

The expo has provided a welcome vital boost for the local businesses and tourism operators who have faced many disruptions over the last few years.

Baw Baw Shire Council partnered with the local community planning committee and residents from Erica and surrounds to deliver the Expo.

All funds raised from ticket sales will go towards recovery and support initiatives for the local community.

Congratulations to Trafalgar's own Alan Valenzuela – Baw Baw's Young Citizen of the Year!

Trafalgar High School graduate Alan Valenzuela was recognised as Baw Baw's Young Citizen of the Year at the Baw Baw Shire Australia Day Awards held on January 26 at the West Gippsland Arts Centre.

Alan writes and records his own music and co-founded the 'Make Noise Initiative' – a program aimed at supporting local musicians break into the music industry.

Alan's efforts in support of local music and his cheerful willingness to volunteer and lend a hand has been widely recognised and appreciated by his community.

Alan is also recognised as an informal leader in the school community, known for supporting his peers and providing a voice to student ideas to the school and teachers.

Congratulations, Alan!

Around the Historical Society

By Di Ireland

In 1988 as part of Australia's Bi-Centennial celebrations, what was then the Narracan Shire, in collaboration with the Trafalgar & District Historical Society, placed a number of plaques around the district commemorating early settlement by our pioneers. With the passing of time, some of these plaques have been either removed or relocated without our knowledge. It would be most appreciated if you could contact the Society if you have any information.

If you read John Hanley's book about the Moe Swamp, Yulungah and Trafalgar East telephone exchanges, you might be interested to know he has another book nearing publication, this one being about Yarragon South.

Can you help?

We have received a request for a good quality photo of the cutting of the ribbon ceremony at the opening of the memorial gates at the Recreation Reserve in 1970. Please contact Jean Huffer on 56331960 if you can help.

A little trivia:

Working bees are held on the 1st and 3rd Fridays from 2pm till 4pm, although most Fridays see members working on the ever-growing collection. New members are always welcome, and if you have any computer skills, you would be especially welcome.

The 1933 Plymouth sedan

Holden Museum car of the month

By Bob Moss

1928 to 1938 Plymouth Sedans Plymouth Automobile History

The Plymouth automobile was introduced on July 7, 1928. It was Chrysler Corporation's first entry in the low-priced field, which at the time was already dominated by Chevrolet and Ford. Plymouths were actually priced slightly higher than their competition, but offered all standard features such as internal expanding hydraulic brakes that the competition did not provide. Plymouths were originally sold exclusively through Chrysler dealerships.

The origins of Plymouth can be traced back to the Maxwell automobile. When Walter P. Chrysler took over control of the troubled Maxwell-Chalmers car company in the early 1920s, he inherited the Maxwell as part of the package.

After he used the company's facilities to help create and launch the Chrysler car in 1924, he decided to create a lower-priced companion car. So for 1926 the Maxwell was reworked and rebadged as the low-end Chrysler "52" model.

In 1928, the "52" was once again redesigned to create the Chrysler-Plymouth Model Q. The "Chrysler" portion of the nameplate was dropped with the introduction of the Plymouth Model U in 1929.

By 1932, Plymouth was third in sales after Chevrolet and Ford. A vacuum-actuated clutch became available and, for 1933, it was fitted with a six-cylinder engine.

1928 Chrysler Corporation creates a new division to compete with Chevrolet and Ford in the "entry-level" car market. The division's name recalls Plymouth Rock and first Pilgrim colony; Mayflower ship is stamped on radiator. First Plymouth is publicly shown at Madison Square Garden, offering many features of the more expensive Chrysler models, including available four-wheel hydraulic brakes and full-pressure engine lubrication.

1929 Chrysler completes the Detroit Lynch Road factory for Plymouth production, making it the largest auto assembly plant in the world.

1931 Plymouth surpasses

Buick to become the third best selling car in the nation in only its fourth year on the market.

1932 Plymouth PA Series makes its debut as the most advanced low price car with "Floating Power", a new engine mounting system that substantially reduces the vibration of four-cylinder motors. Plymouth PB is the last four-cylinder model built. 1933 Six-cylinder PC is introduced via nationwide live radio program.

1934 Plymouth builds its one-millionth automobile, captures 25 percent of the low priced car market.

In 1939, Plymouth produced 417,528 vehicles, of which 5,967 were two-door convertible coupes with rumble seats. The 1939 convertible coupe was prominently featured at Chrysler's exhibit at the 1939 New York World's Fair, advertised as the first mass-production convertible with a power folding top.

THE TRAFALGAR, YARRAGON & YALLOURN NEWS, MARCH 1932

3 MARCH – "SPARKLERS" DEBUT

Humorous Acts, Liting Music, Coloured Tatleaus, Dancing, Choruses and Ballets – over three hours of delight were provided in the Trafalgar Public Hall last Thursday evening.

About four months ago a number of young people approached Mrs H M Campbell, of Trafalgar, and asked her assistance in the formation of a Comedy and Dramatic Company, to be of a public nature.

This she very kindly consented to do, and later this body was named "The Trafalgar Sparklers".

THE MISSING AEROPLANE

On Monday last an aeroplane landed on the property of Mr Bert Kellas, on the Trafalgar Meadows.

Messrs Jewell and Staggs, the occupants, stated that they were going to search over Hill End and Noojee districts for the missing Southern Cloud, the 'plane which disappeared and has baffled the best of aviation brains.

Trafalgar was to be the centre of the operations.

10 MARCH – HOSPITAL GIFTS

Gifts to the West Gippsland Hospital are acknowledged as under:- Trafalgar Milk Supply – two crates of rabbits; Mrs H. Dowton, Yarragon – old linen; Mrs Holden, Thorpdale – 3 jars of jam and supply of literature; Mrs Rodda, Thorpdale – old linen.

LEAP YEAR BALL

The Women's Section of the Victorian Country Party held a most successful "Leap Year" ball at Yarragon on Monday, 29th ult.

The music was supplied by Mr Jack Skinner and his Syncopates, and a great night was had by all.

THE GIPPSLAND NEWS, MARCH, 1962

1 MARCH – TRAFALGAR SWIMMING CLUB

Another successful carnival was conducted by the Trafalgar Swimming Club on Saturday evening last under ideal conditions.

The gay atmosphere of the amusement carnival nearby in the park contributed greatly to the success of the evening.

Thirteen-year old Kay Parke was the star of the evening when she swam exceptionally well to break her previous record times for the freestyle, women's open, breast (or butterfly) and back stroke.

EX-RESIDENTS PICNIC

In a very even field of 14 entrants, Miss Michelle Johnston won the Trafalgar Miss Teenager 1962 contest conducted by the Ex-Residents Association at the annual picnic held at the Mor-dialloc beach on Sunday last.

The event was staged in glorious sunshine and approximately 400 present and ex-residents watched the judging.

8 MARCH – LACK OF INTEREST IN HALL

At the annual meeting of the Trafalgar Public Hall, the committee and members of the ladies' auxiliary were very disappointed when the meeting followed the pattern that has been set during the past few years by the people of Trafalgar and district when, by their absence, they demonstrated their complete lack of interest in the running of the Public Hall.

Few people, when booking the hall stop to consider how fortunate Trafalgar is in having such a spacious hall for hire compared with those available in larger neighbouring towns.

APEX CARNIVAL

The Apex carnival held in McGregor Park raised £114 ($3400 today) for the Trafalgar swimming pool committee.

Trafalgar Apexians put in about 330 man-hours on the project – erecting, manning and dismantling the carnival – with the help on Saturday of several Rotarians.

The scheme was part of "Operation Citizen", under which all 38 clubs in Zone 1 of the Association of Apex Clubs did a job of community service on Saturday, 24 February.

22 MARCH – TRAFALGAR MARCHING GIRLS

In a Marching Girls' contest conducted by the Red Cross carnival committee on Sunday last at Traralgon, the Trafalgar teams literally scooped the pool in senior and junior sections. Trafalgar 'Hi-Lites' put on their best performance to win fall-in and inspection and best senior leader and aggregate.

The 'Latrobettes' struck form again to win the fall-in and inspection, display, and aggregate in the junior competition.

NARRACAN SHIRE GARDEN CLUB

What has been claimed on all sides as one of the most exquisite display of flowers ever seen in Trafalgar was staged at the Trafalgar Public Hall on Saturday last when the Narracan Shire Garden Club conducted its annual Dahlia Show.

Entries reached record proportions and in all some 636 exhibits were displayed. One very pleasing feature was the tremendous interest shown by children in the section set aside for them.

Members of the local Red Cross conducted a booth which dispensed luncheon.

TRAF NEWS, MARCH 2004

COMMUNITY BANK GROWS

The Trafalgar and District Community Bank Manager Bryan Leaf reported that staff have been kept busy both opening new accounts and transferring accounts from other branches to the Community Bank.

For those interested in buying shares, be quick, a last chance still exists but there are only 29,000 left at $1.00 ($1.45 today) each.

TRAFALGAR RAILWAY STATION

Many of you will have read in recent editions that the Trafalgar Community Development Association (TCDA) has been in communication with the Government through our local member, Ian Maxfield, regarding the lack of a tenant in, and the general condition of the town's railway station.

There has been much discussion on the state of the building over recent years.

There is now an opportunity for a business or possibly a local organisation to lease the premises.

Australia Day at the Holden Museum

Words and photos by Liam Durkin

Possibly the most Australian place to be on Australia Day was the Trafalgar Holden Museum.

The museum celebrated all things Holden, as hundreds of petrol heads brought classic and modern cars to Trafalgar for an old fashioned show and shine.

Australian flags were sprawled across the windscreen of some cars, alongside the Holden lion logo that has become instantly identifiable with Australia.

So big was the turnout, there wasn't enough room in the museum's car park or along Waterloo Road to house all the vehicles, meaning the excess cars had to be displayed at the nearby Trafalgar Recreation Reserve, with people needing to take a shuttle bus to catch a glimpse.

As cars lined the pavement and some hoods were lifted to show off the engine within, motoring enthusiasts clearly took great delight in showcasing their pride and joy.

Each car had a story, and there was no shortage of tales regarding the background to a particular vehicle or how it operated.

Torana and FE models were a feature on show, as were some very rustic utes that offered something of a step back in time such as their vintage.

Despite being a Holden display, there was still room for a few Model T Fords, some of which were close to 100 years old.

The old cars themselves force the average driver to rewire their entire car brain, as things such as hand cranks and hand throttles are commonplace in vintage models.

While driving has become something of a chore in modern society, the sight of old cars at the Holden Museum provided a visual narrative into the way in which technology has evolved in the last century.

Patrons of a particular generation may have even seen their first car on display inside the museum, possibly a Kingswood or Monaro evoking no shortage of memories.

Given the Holden brand is synonymous with cars, many visitors to the museum may be surprised to learn the company also manufactured things such as trams, saddles, golf clubs and even military equipment.

Trafalgar Holden Museum president Neil Joiner said it was especially fitting the museum was able to tell the whole story of Holden alongside significant moments throughout Australian history on Australia Day.

"We're here celebrating all Australian-made motorcars and Australian manufacturing ... that is what it is all about," he said.

"Holden played a major part in the Boer War, World War I and World War II, which is just mind blowing - that is our next development (exhibition) within the next six to nine months and that will really, I think, open everybody's eyes about Australian manufacturing, Australian ingenuity and technology."

The Trafalgar Holden Museum is located at 69 Waterloo Rd, Trafalgar and open until 5pm daily.

The museum is a volunteer organisation.

Those interested in getting involved can do so by phoning 03 5633 1684.

Season with the Ships

Words and photos by Liam Durkin

The season is heading toward the business end at the Trafalgar Cricket Club.

Teams across the grades have been putting in their best efforts as the finals edge closer.

A number of performances highlighted the last month, most notably Christian Burgess who scored 116 against CATS in B Grade during Round 9.

Fred Dyke has also enjoyed some strong form with the bat, with his post-Christmas run reading 30, 49 not out, 60 and 35 at time of writing.

Junior cricketers are continuing their campaigns and are enjoying their time in the field.

The club is waiting with great anticipation to see what is in store for the remainder of the season.

To keep up to date with all things Trafalgar Cricket Club, visit the club's Facebook page or subscribe to the mailing list by emailing trafalgarcricketclub@gmail.com.

Campdraft action in Trafalgar

By Liam Durkin

The niche sport of campdrafting was held in Trafalgar recently.

Riders from across the country took to the Trafalgar Poloecrosse Club grounds to showcase their riding and drafting skills for three days of intense competition.

Riders saddled up on board trusted companions, as they attempted to manoeuvre less trusted cattle.

The air of excitement was ever present, with a number of eyes overlooking the yards and the unpredictability factor of not knowing exactly how the cattle were going to behave.

As competition moved along one got the sense they were stepping back in time to when stockmen would challenge each other for bragging rights to prove their horse riding skills.

It is said this is where the sport had its origins in out-back Queensland.

Drafters at Trafalgar competed in a variety of categories.

Winners across the grades were Trinity McInnes (ladies), Peter Boulton (restricted open), Bailey O'Dell (open), Lukas Roberts (maiden) and Jack Birch (maiden final).

To the uninitiated, camp-drafting may appear to be a casual novelty, but the temperament, composure and knowledge required to succeed in the sport means that the margin for error is miniscule.

The first challenge is for riders to use their best judgement in selecting a single 'beast' from a mob of cattle and to then turn it a number of times to demonstrate to a judge that they have it under control.

Once the rider has a beast 'cut' from the mob they will yell "gate please" to two people manning the entry to the course.

From there, the gates are swung open and there are three minds working at once - the rider, the horse and the beast, as the trio enter the course to complete left and right hand turns in a figure eight, before finally guiding the beast through another gate.

Trafalgar made up a host of campdrafts on the Gippsland Campdraft Association season calendar.

Remote locations like Hin-nomunjie (just out of Omeo) and Yanakie (population 250) form part of the campdrafting roadshow, and are somewhat fitting in keeping with the supposed origins of the sport.

Tim Fraser wins Strzelecki singles title

By Traf Bowls

Trafalgar's gun young bowler Tim Fraser has continued his stellar season by winning the Strzelecki North Champion of Champion singles title in a nail biting game against Mick Smogevic of Moe Bowls Club.

Played at Newborough Bowls Club, both players were playing in their first Champions event having won their own Club singles title. All 18 Strzelecki Bowls clubs singles Champions vied for the overall Champions title.

To reach the final, Fraser defeated several players including the well-fancied George Lambos from Newborough and Ross Sizeland from Traralgon RSL.

Smogevic, along the way to the final, defeated Traralgon Champion Chris Ward. In the final Smogevic started well and opened up a small lead but could not maintain the edge.

After 2 hours the scores were locked at 24 all before

Fraser drew close to come out on top 25/24 in an epic battle.

Congratulations to both players who showed great sportsmanship throughout the day.
